

THE KEEL ROW

Old Border folksong

THOMAS F. DUNHILL
(1877-1946)

Thomas Frederick Dunhill (1877-1946) was born in Hampstead, London, England, and was educated at the North London High School for Boys and Kent College, Canterbury. In 1893 he entered the Royal College of Music, studying composition under Charles Villiers Stanford. He continued studying under Stanford after leaving the college, studying with him until 1901. Dunhill was assistant music master at Eton and professor of harmony and counterpoint at the Royal College of Music. He then became an examiner for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music. He was in steady demand as musical examiner, lecturer, adjudicator, and teacher.

As I came down the Sandgate,
I heard a lassie sing.
O! merry may the keel row,
The ship that my love's in!

My love he wears a bonnet,
A snawy rose upon it,
A dimple on his chin.
O! merry may the keel row,
The ship that my love's in!

And soon I learnt her lover,
Had landed from the Rover,
And joined her in the strain.
O! merry may the keel row,
The ship that my love's in!
